Brooke R. Weidhaas, an associate with the firm, is licensed to practice law in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. Her practice primarily focuses on insurance defense and commercial litigation.

Brooke obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Miami, where she was recruited to compete on the Women's Rowing Team. Brooke double-majored in Criminology and Psychology and was named to the Dean's List and the President's Honor Roll.

While a full-time student at Rutgers Law School, Brooke served as a Judicial Extern to the Honorable Mary Eva Colalillo, P.J.Ch. and the Honorable Nan S. Famular, P.J.Ch., at the Superior Court of New Jersey, Camden Vicinage. Upon completion of her externships, Brooke joined Shimberg & Friel as a law clerk, assisting attorneys with legal research, pre-trial discovery, motion practice, and trial preparation. After graduating from law school, Brooke served as a Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Aimee R. Belgard, J.S.C. at the Superior Court of New Jersey, Burlington Vicinage.
