

Kathleen D. Friel

Kathleen D. Friel, one of the name partners in the firm concentrates her practice in defending civil litigation matters. Before entering private practice, Kathleen served as in-house Counsel in the Legal Services Office of Cigna Property & Casualty Co. gaining valuable experience handling insurance defense matters for Cigna, a leader in the insurance industry. Ms. Friel also has several years of litigation experience with her prior firm handling the defense of medical malpractice cases. She has used that knowledge and experience in successfully defending cases involving medical terminology and disease progression.

In her private practice, Ms. Friel has handled all phases of commercial and general litigation matters from drafting pleadings, discovery requests and responses to discovery requests, review and analysis of legal research, drafting and arguing motions, taking lay witness and expert depositions, attending scheduling, settlement and trial conferences with the court and other pre-trial proceedings. Ms. Friel also has years of experience in handling depositions, arguing motions, attending hearings and conferences in both state and federal courts.

Kathleen graduated from the College of New Jersey in 1991 and Widener University School of Law in 1996. While at Widener, she was a staff member of Widener's principal law review, the Delaware Journal of Corporate Law. She is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania and New Jersey and in the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey.
