

Kevin B. Golden

Kevin B. Golden is a partner with the firm and a member of the New Jersey and Pennsylvania Bar. His practice focuses on insurance defense, commercial litigation, and mortgage litigation. Kevin has successfully defended matters through all stages of litigation, including numerous jury and bench trials.

Prior to joining the firm, Kevin worked as a Probation Officer with the Camden County Probation Department, where he gained extensive experience interviewing clients and testifying and presenting evidence in court.

Kevin graduated from Gettysburg College with a B.A. in Management and Spanish, where he was a four-year letter winner as a defensive back on the football team. He graduated with honors from Rutgers-Camden School of Law, where he was an Articles Editor for the Journal of Law and Public Policy and a Teaching Assistant for Legal Analysis, Writing & Research and Moot Court.

A lifelong resident of Gloucester County, Kevin has served as a coach for the St. Margaret's varsity basketball team for the last 12 years. He is also a member of the Gloucester Catholic Alumni Scholarship Committee. Kevin resides with his wife and three children in Gloucester County.
